

Sponsored by Engaged Scholarship in partnership with Community Relations and the UNC Charlotte Community Engagement Advisory Council.

Engaged Scholarship and Community Partnership Symposium

November 8, 2019
Cone Center
UNC Charlotte

Engaged Scholarship Symposium

Friday, November 8, 2019

Registration and Welcome

8:30am - 9:00am

Lucas Room in the Cone Center

9:00am - 9:45am

Cone 111

How to translate your research to affect positive change in the Charlotte region

Lori Thomas, Urban Institute
Ely Portillo, Urban Institute

Cone 112

Cultural awareness in community engagement

Joe Hoff, International Programs

10:00am - 10:45am

Cone 111

How to build strong, sustainable community partnerships and community-based research teams

Mark DeHaven, Public Health Sciences
Nicole Peterson, Anthropology

Cone 112

Engaging in UNC Charlotte's Economic Development Initiatives

Clay Andrews, Research and Economic Development

11:00am - 11:45am

Cone 111

Engaged Scholarship: making the case for tenure and promotion

Jim Cook, Psychological Science
Heather Smith, Geography and Earth Sciences

Cone 112

Engaging STEM students in Community-Based Learning

Brett Tempest, Civil and Environmental Engineering
Tom Schmedake, Chemistry

Working Lunch: Collaboration in University City

12pm - 2pm

Lucas Room in the Cone Center

Learn about the work that the Academy for Research on Community Health, Engagement and Services (ARCHES) is doing in the University City area through the UCITY Family Zone. Meet UCITY Family Zone community partners, and learn how to engage.

Networking and Resource Fair

2pm - 3:30pm

Lucas Room in the Cone Center

Women + Girls Research Alliance
Office of Undergraduate Research
University Career Center
Leadership and Community Engagement
Charlotte Action Research Project (CHARP)
Gerald G. Fox Master in Public Administration

